

Name: _____

Snowman Change Unknown Word Problems

The kids built 3 snowmen on Monday and some more snowmen on Tuesday. Then the kids had eleven snowmen. How many snowmen did they build on Tuesday?

$$\underline{\quad} \square \square = \underline{\quad}$$

Nathan put 5 snowman decorations in his yard this morning and some more this afternoon. At the end of the day, he had 15 snowmen in his yard. How many snowmen did he put out this afternoon?

$$\underline{\quad} \square \square = \underline{\quad}$$

There were 7 snow people in the family. Some babies were born. Now there are 13 snow people in the family. How many babies were born?

$$\underline{\quad} \square \square = \underline{\quad}$$

Colton put 6 snowman marshmallows in his hot cocoa. It wasn't enough so he added some more. His cocoa was perfect once he had 10 marshmallows. How many marshmallows did he add?

$$\underline{\quad} \square \square = \underline{\quad}$$

Sarah put 2 snowman marshmallows in her coffee. She wanted it sweeter so she added some more. She liked the coffee when she had 11 marshmallows. How many marshmallows did she add?

$$\underline{\quad} \square \square = \underline{\quad}$$

I hung 4 snowman pictures on the wall. Then, I hung some more. When I was done, there were 14 snowman pictures. How many more did I hang?

$$\underline{\quad} \square \square = \underline{\quad}$$

Suggestion: Use with snowman marshmallows as manipulatives.

Suggestion: Use with snowman marshmallows as manipulatives.